To whom it may concern,

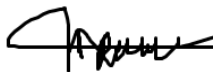

Dear iPloy OPC ,

I am writing to officially resign from my position as PAP Resupply Held/ Customer Service Representative at iPloy OPC effective today from the date of this letter. I have thoroughly considered this utmost decision due to health reasons that have become increasingly challenging. I have been struggling with my productive cough for 9 weeks now and it's been tough since it's recurring whenever I am exposed, my low immunity and lack of proper rest & worst part is I am not healing, it keeps going with the symptoms. I have Chronic Sinusitis, Benign paroxysmal positional vertigo along with my current health circumstances require me to prioritize my recovery and focus on my well-being.

I have valued my time at iPloy OPC, To my team leader working with my colleagues, I appreciate the support and opportunities provided to me during my tenure.

I hope you understand my decision. I wish the company continued success and thank you.

Sincerely yours,
