Niño Angelo Manal
Operations Manager
iPloy OPC

Dear Mr. Manal,

I hope this letter finds you in good spirits.

I am writing to formally resign from my position at iPloy OPC, effective today, March 31, 2026.

This was not an easy decision for me to make. My reason for leaving is focused on my personal and career growth. This decision has nothing to do with the workload or the environment at iPloy, as I am truly grateful for both. However, I feel the need to grow further, especially in a healthcare environment, where I hope to continue developing both personally and professionally.

I am truly grateful for the time I spent here and for the experiences that helped me grow. I wouldn't be the person I am today if not for the people I met along the way.

I would like to sincerely thank Rich Salariana for being the first person who believed in me. That trust meant a lot and gave me the confidence to keep going. I am also very grateful for all the guidance I received throughout my stay.

To my managers, Angelo and Doc, thank you for your support and understanding. To my team, the entire operations team, HR department, accounting team, and the company as a whole, thank you for working hand in hand with me and for always being willing to help. I truly appreciate the teamwork and the memories we shared.

I will always be thankful for the opportunity to be part of iPloy. Wishing the company, and the whole team continued success.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Lyka Mariz Cabañero
