Dear Ma'am/Sir,

I'm writing to inform you of my decision to resign from my role as Customer Service Representative for a personal reason effective immediately. Sad to say that my last working day will be tomorrow Friday (5/3/2024).

The last 3 years have been a joy and fruitful experience being able to experience real work first hand, meeting my colleagues whom I considered my family, and the fact that I stayed 3 years in the company shows that I am very grateful for the company for giving me the opportunity to learn, grow, and aim more. I have been carefully thinking about this thought of resigning, and I believe that this is the right decision for me at this point in my career. Thank you so much for the wonderful 3 years, and for giving me the strength and courage to explore other opportunities. I wouldn't have done this without the help and support of the company. I'm confident that the experience and skills I've gained will continue to serve me well in my future endeavors.

For now, I would like to focus more on working with myself, and be with my kids, and explore life, as I grow old year by year, and I don't want to waste any of that while I'm still alive. My kids are growing day by day, and I want to cherish each and every moment with them.

Once again, thank you so much for believing in me. The memories and experience I have in here will forever be embedded in my mind and heart. I will not forget the very first company that made me stay longer and believed in my capabilities.

Best,

Luz D. Casinillo
