The Manager

Sir/Ma'am,

Please accept this letter as a formal notice of my resignation effective today September 14, 2022. I am truly blessed to have your support and my colleagues. I am always thankful also for the opportunity you gave me. This decision was not easy however I decided to accept an opportunity to have a new job that I can continue to work from home so as to protect my health and my family.

Thank you again for the opportunity and I wish you and the company all success and God bless us all.
