Kindly find this letter as a notice for I will be formally resigning as a Customer Care Support in the Billing Department for Patient Pay under the support of Retchie Salariana effective today Wednesday September 21, 2022.

I truly enjoyed my employment with iPloy even for a short period of time however being in an inevitable situation is difficult to handle wherein I need to choose between family responsibility and being with the company. For this time I need to give up my job to attend to my family's needs.

Thank you!
