To HR Team,

Greetings of peace and rejuvenation!

The purpose of this letter is to announce my immediate resignation from IPLOY Philippines, effective March 21, 2023, today.

This was not an easy decision to make, on my part. I've enjoyed working with you, observing how our production operations have expanded, and managing a very successful team dedicated to providing customer service for the customers/patients.

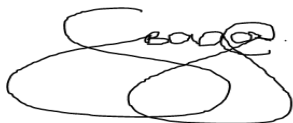

Thank you for the professional and personal development you have assisted me in serving this amazing account. I consider just about everyone I have met here to be friends of mine now, and I will miss you all.

However, between my schooling, and my career has taken a different direction and I feel it is time to move on to new opportunities and challenges.

With the sudden swift and twist of my personal life and career, I need to look for a better opportunity outside the premises of this company. True enough that this company has served me with great training experience and I am always in sincere gratitude for that.

I wish you and the company all the best and I do hope our paths cross again in the future.

Sincerely,
