

Dear Miss Maw and Miss Ramz,

I hope this message finds you well.

It is with a mix of gratitude and regret that I submit my resignation from my position at iPloy OPC., effective September 13, 2024. This decision has been incredibly difficult for me, as my time at iPloy OPC. has been both rewarding and formative.

I am deeply grateful for the opportunities I have had here. The support, mentorship, and camaraderie I've experienced have been invaluable, and I have grown both professionally and personally during my tenure. The projects I've worked on and the relationships I've built are experiences I will cherish.

However, I have recently been presented with a new opportunity that aligns closely with my long-term career goals. After much consideration, I feel that it is a step I must take at this point in my career. I understand that my departure may cause inconvenience, and for that, I sincerely apologize. Please know that this decision was not made lightly.

I am committed to ensuring a smooth transition and am happy to assist in any way I can during my remaining time. If there are specific tasks or projects that need attention, or if I can help in training a replacement, please let me know.

Thank you once again for the incredible experience and for your understanding.

Warmest regards,

Charisse Pacot
