

Dear Iploy,

This decision was not easy, but it comes after much consideration regarding my health. Over the past few months, I have been dealing with severe sinusitis, which has increasingly impacted my ability to perform at my best. After consulting with my healthcare provider, I have decided to take the necessary time to focus on treatment and recovery.

As part of this transition, I have also decided to pursue a new opportunity that aligns with my personal and professional growth once I have fully recovered.

Working at Iploy for the past two years and one month has been a valuable and rewarding experience. I am genuinely grateful for the opportunity to grow, the support from my colleagues, and the chance to contribute to the team.

Please consider this my formal resignation, effective August 1st.

Thank you once again for your understanding and support. I truly appreciate everything the company has done for me, and I wish Iploy continued success in the future.

Sincerely,

Jan Lyndon Orais
ARP Specialist
