Hello, TL Faith Padigos,

I apologize for not being able to give you more notice, and I humbly ask that you accept my resignation from the position as a Customer Service Representative at iPloy, OPC effective immediately. I have greatly valued the experiences and opportunities that I have had during my time here. The support from both my colleagues and the management team has been truly appreciated. However, I have decided to focus on preparing for my board exams and I plan to pursue a career more aligned with my degree in psychology, which requires my full attention at this time.

I sincerely appreciate the opportunities and experiences I have had while working with the team. I am grateful for the support I have received, and I will carry these lessons with me as I transition into the next phase of my career.

Working with you and the rest of the team will be cherished. I am truly grateful for the experiences and growth that have come from this role. Thank you for your understanding, and I wish the company continued success in the future.

Yours Sincerely,

Hannah Christine Limosnero
