SEMESTER HOURS CREDIT

Each unit of credit is based on 50 hours of classroom instruction. Three hours of laboratory work, each with one hour of 54-minute semester are reported as equivalent to one unit of credit.
 The semester average grade of student is computed by multiplying the number of units assigned to a course by the grade earned and the product is divided by the total units earned for the semester.
 The student is to report to the Registrar the grade and the number of units earned for each course.
 The Registrar will compute the grade and the number of units earned for each course.
