To whom it may concern:

This is to inform you that I am resigning from my position as PAP Patient Support Representative for iPloy OPC effective November 25, 2022. I am currently looking for a work from home setup and will be working double shifts as inflation rises and put pressure on our household budget.

Thank you very much for the opportunity you have given me to learn all about customer service. I have enjoyed my time with the company and I believe the experience has taught me much about the medical industry.

In the meantime, I will be happy to assist with the transition.

Thank you.

Best wishes,

Mie Ann Pinaranda
