Dear Ben,

I would like to express my sincerest and heartfelt gratitude to you for helping me grow my career at Iploy, OPC. I truly appreciate the time and effort you invested to guide and mold me in my responsibilities. As I continue to progress professionally, I want you to know that I will be moving forward drastically to a different company in the near future. Thank you for your commitment and consistency in helping me be excellent in my job. I am tendering my resignation effective immediately, but I do hope we can still continue to connect even outside the company premises.
