Dear iPloy,

The purpose of this letter is to announce my resignation from iPloy OPC as Customer Service Representative for Stop/Help Patient Contact Department, effective February 6, 2023.

After a long and careful consideration here on my part, I have decided to resign due to health-related issues. I need to focus on getting my health back on track, both physically and mentally.

I want to express my sincere gratitude for the employment experience. The past 10 months have been very challenging and at the same time, rewarding. I have enjoyed working for I did not only learn knowledge and skills to the department and team I was with, in which I will forever be grateful. I have met amazing people that inspired me and has been my 2nd family. To my Team Lead, TL Faith, who is so kind and understanding, I will forever be thankful for the guidance and care you have shown not only to me but to the rest of the team. To Team Faith, I have met many people in this journey but all of you will forever be in my heart, and I am also thankful to have met you all. The Company and Team Faith has been instrumental to my growth both personally and professionally.

I wish all of you and the company all the best. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Glimpse May T. Mabini
